War & Peace: Contemporary Russian Prose (New Russian Writing)

Synopsis

Army stories (War) versus women's stories (Peace) make a compelling portrait of post-post-perestroika Russia. The message is that any war inevitably sows hatred among otherwise peaceful people. The women's stories immerse you in the world of basic human values but also aging, the generation gap, and violence against women.

Customer Reviews

Natasha Perova has done it again, bringing out a superbly edited and masterfully translated collection of male and female Russian authors (including both the Booker and Big Book prize winners, see page 11), writing on themes of love, loyalty, violence and family. (Reviewed in Russian Life)
