Customer Reviews

4 Stars!!!!"Where She Belongs" The Forever Collection Book One is by Dani Wyatt. This was a fun, cheesy insta-love/lust romance with a virgin alpha hero and a ridiculously naive virgin heroine. What a great short read! I loved both characters! Here we have the story of Decker Lawrence and May Morgan. May is a sheltered wealthy young woman who has been kept from the real world by her guardian since the death of her parents several years prior. May and her sister aren't allowed to leave the property. They were both still underage when they lost their parents in a tragic accident, which also injured her older sister. Their guardian could surely use lessons in honesty and good morals. He is manipulating May into an arranged marriage. May comes up with a plan to earn her own money. She will sneak out of the house at night and get a job as a dancer in a nightclub. She hopes to earn enough of her own money to support herself and her sister. Let me mention that May is nineteen and legally should not be under the rule of a guardian any longer. Her sister is a few years older. So why do they still have a guardian when they are both of legal age to take care of themselves? Hmm...Decker is the owner of several well established nightclubs but his main office is in his newest, The Monarch. Decker is tall, sexy, and totally an alpha. Oh, did I mention he is a virgin? In his late thirties!? Trust me, that did not stop that hot man from knowing what to do when it came to being with May. Decker and May were cute together. There is some light suspense and foul play happening to give the story a slightly darker tone but it was definitely a fun read. And sexy, steamy! This was the first in a series and my first book by Dani Wyatt.
