Waiting To Fall: Almost Rapunzel (Almost A Fairytale)

Synopsis

All Tennyson Spencer wants is to get through college and move out of the apartment heâ€™s shared with his brother since their parentsâ€™ death. The last thing on his mind is relationships. With a job as a concierge at Gothel Suites, and a hard-earned college scholarship, heâ€™s just barely balancing all heâ€™s promised himself. With the voice of an angel, Melody has landed a role after a role in musical theater. Her adoptive aunt has been her helper, agent, and guardian, and Melody has been both content and successful under her auntâ€™s care. Landing the lead in Phantom of the Opera means a show in Las Vegas and a residence in the exclusive Gothel Suites—a dream come true. Or so she’s been told. When Tennyson and Melody meet, she begins to question her incredibly sheltered existence. And when their mutual attraction leads them on a night out together, it puts their lives on a path they never expected. With Melody stunned by the truth of her past, and Tennyson desperate to do right by her, they both have to take a leap of faith in order to be together. But sometimes love isnâ€™t enough, and their happily ever after might not be worth the plunge, no matter whoâ€™s waiting at the end of the fall. WAITING TO FALL: ALMOST RAPUNZEL is the second novella in the ALMOST A FAIRYTALE series. The first being MISMATCHED IN LOVE: ALMOST CINDERELLA

A touch of fairy tale, a sprinkle of fun and what you get is a light romance that left me looking for the author's other works. It's nice to twist fairy tale elements in with reality- it makes the reader feel the magic along with the story.

This is a great book about borrowed dreams and following your own dreams. The characters were fun and easy to love, or vilify. :) An enjoyable spin on the Rapunzel fairy tale, Waiting to Fall is a clean romance about finding out who you really are and really want.

The romance shared was believable. I think that's a compliment, not a lack of imagination. I like my stories to be squeaky clean, and past relationships of the H and his brother were not, but the H and the h saved sex for marriage.

Rapunzel retelling. Like the characters. Enjoyed. Content: mild language, innuendo, talk of sex but nothing graphic Source: Kindle Unlimited

I loved Melody and Tennyson so much. Melody is sort of like me. I am not singing but to me I don't get to do more things because of mr family's up bringing but I can wait. —
