Isadora (Masters Among Monsters #2) by Ella Frank 5 stars!!
œDamn her for being the one he could never forget. And the one he was destined to destroy.
•I am not a huge paranormal reader, I even body swerved it at any and every opportunity before I became addicted to anything that Amy Bartol penned thanks to a friend that strong armed me to read it, but sometimes you have to hold your hands up and admit you were wrong. I have followed Ella Frank from the beginning, an author I stumbled across thanks to an recommendation and I have never looked back. Ella Frank has turned her hand to many genres and in my opinion she has excelled in all of them, I have to put my hands up and say is there anything that Ella Frank cannot write? This is one author whose writing style I can connect with, Ella Frank never fails to draw me into her stories and her characters. She always nails character connection to the point where I personally am totally immersed in their life and feel like I am living it, that is an amazing talent to have and not many authors can pull it off.
œSe empistevome. I trust you.
•I loved the first book in this series, Alasdair, and I was eagerly anticipating reading Isadora. I had become so immersed in this world of vampires that Ella Frank had painstakingly created that I didnâ™t want to leave and the next book could not come soon enough. So, when Isadora hit my kindle I was buzzing with anticipation, after the ending of Alasdair I needed to dive in and so I did.
œI believe it was a footprint of sorts. A moment imprinted in time.
•Once again it did not take long to be whisked away into Ellaâ™s world of our incredibly hot Greek God sired vampires.

Just when I thought this series couldnâ™t get any better, BAM! Isadora completely wowed me! This is book #2 in the series and it picks up right where Alasdair (book one) leaves you hanging. Alasdair was one of my top reads of 2015 and Isadora has secured her spot for 2016. And YES, you most definitely need to read this series in order or you will be thoroughly messed up. The book may be titled Isadora, but you get a good healthy dose of all of your favorite sexy vamps from the first book. I love the way that these relationships cultivate from book one into book two, and I personally was so excited to reunite with my favorite trio, Alasdair, Leo & Vasilios. I absolutely fell more in love with them, and I was so excited to see Leo come out of his shell and stand up for himself and what he wanted. Vasilios was my favorite from the first book, and he still is, but damn these other characters are giving him a run for his money! By other characters, Iâ€™m talking about Isadora, Elias and Diomedes. I absolutely LOVE the dynamic between these three!! Like major love! Diomedes completely stole the show in my opinion. Isadora is his first sired, and the lengths he goes through to make her happy and protect her just made me totally fall for him. And then thereâ€™s Daphne. Oh boy. This was another first for me, and damn was it sexy as hell. Between Elias, Daphne, and Diomedes, letâ€™s just say that Isadora has had her fill of sexy time, she is one lucky lady vampire! You also get to know Eton and Thanos. Eton is an ancient along with Vasilios and Diomedes, and his first sired is Thanos. The stuff that these ancients do in order to preserve their species is truly amazing and sweet. I donâ€™t want to say that itâ€™s sweet, but it totally is.
